

BEGINNING A CULTURE OF GENEROSITY

We have never experienced a year like the one we are currently living in. In-person worship and other gatherings suspended, learning to provide worship and other experiences online, and caring for one another from a distant, just to name a few. At the same time, God has very clearly been active in our life together. Here are just a few of the ways in which you have shared with us:

- Not being able to gather in person for worship has been hard for me. I miss seeing everyone. I am so grateful for our Pastor and ministry teams that have worked so hard to keep us connected through Zoom and various other ways. I have had the opportunity to be a part of several meetings and bible studies that I would not have been able to attend in person due to my work schedule. So for now I will enjoy seeing your faces whenever I can and wait patiently until I see everyone in person.

- I was contemplating a career change after 23 years. I was struggling making the decision. I spoke with a couple of my Church brothers and they provided insight that led me to make the change. Here we are eight months later and I am glad I made the change.

- I am a former member of Ascension Lutheran Church and currently a member of another congregation. I haven't felt the Holy Spirit there in some time so I decided to come home, and I am moving my letter. I have been joining in Sunday worship and nightly prayer whenever possible. It has helped me so much, especially since I am going through my third bout with cancer. I have always enjoyed church and feel Ascension is really where home should be. Thank you for your online services and thank you for adding me to the prayer list!

What a beautiful community we are part of! God is certainly active here and we look forward to seeing how we can help keep this ministry vibrant in the coming year.
